Drip, Drop!

Illustrated by Priya Kuriyan

Drip, drop.

She loves to stand in the rain.

She puts up her
arms and grins.

They put out
some pails to catch the rain.

They can use it.

Her mum likes to stay
in the house when it
rains.

She plays a tune and
sings.

The birds are not
fans of the rain.

They put up their
tails to try to keep
the rain off.

They get home
and get dry.

The smells from dinner trail into
the living room.

All of the plants will be so green. She loves to see how much things grow
from the rain.

She is a big fan of this tree. The rain
helps it to grow up
big and strong.
