

IN MY GARDEN

illustrated by
Kishor Joshi

I love to spend time
in my garden.

It is such a special place.

Insects of all kinds
flock to the scent
of my blooms.

It is a meeting place
for the bees.

And for all kinds of fancy birds too.

The background is a solid light blue. In the top left corner, there are yellow daisies with green stems and leaves. In the top right corner, there are more yellow daisies, some with green stems and leaves, and one with a red stem. In the bottom left corner, there are pink roses with green leaves. In the bottom right corner, there are green leaves.

There are flowers of all kinds, big and small.

I have roses and daisies
and some I can't name.

What is this flower
with bright red
leaves?

I know these are daisies with a big yellow center.

A butterfly looks like she might
make one her
home.

There is so much life
and activity, like the buzzing of a busy bee.

They want to drink from them all.

I love to be in
my garden.

It is such a special place
and I look after
it every day.
