

IS THIS THE SEA?

ILLUSTRATED BY ANNA TRIANA

A vibrant, stylized illustration of a landscape. In the upper left, a large, dark blue cloud with white outlines and small white crescent shapes inside. To its left, a lighter blue cloud with a smiling face and small white crescent shapes. In the upper right, a bright orange sun with a smiling face and radiating lines. In the lower right, a body of water with blue waves and a small orange boat. The foreground features rolling green hills with white outlines, a winding blue river, and various green plants and trees. The sky is a pale yellow with light blue wavy lines.

We are drops of rain. We will fall from the sky. We will go to the sea!

Wow!

We fall so fast!

Where is the sea?

Is it to the east?

We land on some grass.

Look, the head of a fish!

Roll, roll, roll to the sea!

Look at that big leaf!

Swim, swim, swim!

Are we there yet?

Yes! We are near to the sea.

It is so big and wet!

Look! We are near the sun.

We will get warm, and then...

The heat will make us fly!

Back to the sky!

We are drops of rain.

From the sky to the sea,
then the sea to the sky!

Bookbot books are free, high quality decodable readers based on the order of sounds introduced by the Bookbot Scope & Sequence.

We're delighted to offer them to you to download and print at no cost. But it would be great if you could link to our page www.bookbotkids.com/free-books from your school's website so others can enjoy our free books.

We believe in creating an extensive library of decodable readers to inspire and bring confidence to children learning to read. You can find out about our mission at www.bookbotkids.com.
