

MY CAT

illustrated by Soeum Kakada

Her dad has been out to the shops.

He had to get some food.

She asks if she can do a brief sketch of the food. Then she will help make the meal.

She has done
some classes.
She can get the shape just right.

She takes note of
where there are dark
and light parts on the food.

She does not like
how they look the
first time or two,
so she does a fresh one.

Their cat cries for food. She wants to draw him, but it is hard to draw things that move.

She tries to make a start. She must break it down into shapes.

She feels fried.

Oh, wait!

Is there a new way
to do this?

She makes her cat
out of the food that she drew!

She is great at art.

Bookbot books are free, high quality decodable readers based on the order of sounds introduced by the Bookbot Scope & Sequence.

We're delighted to offer them to you to download and print at no cost. But it would be great if you could link to our page www.bookbotkids.com/free-books from your school's website so others can enjoy our free books.

We believe in creating an extensive library of decodable readers to inspire and bring confidence to children learning to read. You can find out about our mission at www.bookbotkids.com.
