

PULL THE TWINE

I make my own puppets. I make them nonstop!

I stand behind and pull the twine. I like to have different kinds so that I can change up the stories in my show.

I give each of my puppets different
clothes so that people can tell
what kind of lives
they have.

This one is a rich lady.

I can draw
backgrounds with nonhuman parts so
that my puppets
can act in front of them.

Here she can be friends with a tiger
and tell us about
plants.

I can pull the twine
to get this puppet
to teach us about
germs.

She can tell us about what is nonsense and what is true.

I make my puppets using fabric and card.

The card helps
them to stand up straight. The fabric makes them look nice.

I love to put shows on for friends and family. I get to show off my talents while they have a great time. It feels good to make them smile.

Bookbot books are free, high quality decodable readers based on the order of sounds introduced by the Bookbot Scope & Sequence.

We're delighted to offer them to you to download and print at no cost. But it would be great if you could link to our page www.bookbotkids.com/free-books from your school's website so others can enjoy our free books.

We believe in creating an extensive library of decodable readers to inspire and bring confidence to children learning to read. You can find out about our mission at www.bookbotkids.com.
