

Save Our Sea

illustrated by Roel Obemio

My house is near the beach.

I love to go and
play in the sea.

One day, I saw the filth
that came from a factory near the beach.

The sea is sick from the waste
that the factory makes.

Mum told me, if I want it to stop, I must send the factory a message.

So I got a stick and
wrote SOS in the sand.

For me, it means Save
Our Sea.

The big boss of the factory flew
over the sand.

He saw my message.

He sent men to ask
what the SOS means.

'Save Our Sea!' I yell.

The next day, mum tells me that the big boss did hear my message.

'He will take the waste
away now.'

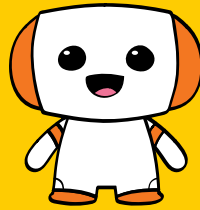

I write a new message
in the sand for him to
see. Thank you.

I hope now that the sea will stay clean.

Bookbot books are free, high quality decodable readers based on the order of sounds introduced by the Bookbot Scope & Sequence.

We're delighted to offer them to you to download and print at no cost. But it would be great if you could link to our page www.bookbotkids.com/free-books from your school's website so others can enjoy our free books.

We believe in creating an extensive library of decodable readers to inspire and bring confidence to children learning to read. You can find out about our mission at www.bookbotkids.com.
