

The Butterfly Garden

written by
BEL RICHARDSON

illustrated by
LAVANYA NAIDU

Diya is a big fan of butterflies. She helps them if they are in odd spots, like chunks of mud.

The bus honks when her class gets to the garden. The class gets off the bus. Diya is still shy in class.

Diya starts to smile when she spots the butterflies. They make her want to skip and twirl.

Miss tells them butterfly facts. Miss is so smart. Diya puts her hand up to tell the class facts as well.

Butterflies have six, thin legs. They are an insect. It may look like they have two wings,
but they have four.

Miss is glad that Diya wants to talk in class. The kids like what she has to say. They ask her for more.

As the butterflies
dip and dart, Diya is not so shy. She tells Miss and her pals more.

She tells them that a butterfly starts as a caterpillar.

The caterpillar makes a pod on a branch or plank.
Then it starts to change.

Diya makes a friend. They see how many butterflies they can find by the pink flowers.

They wish they could tell what the butterflies think.

The butterflies fly up in the sky. This kind are blue tigers.

Diya can tell the kids in her class so much.
They ask her more and more.

Bookbot books are free, high quality decodable readers based on the order of sounds introduced by the Bookbot Scope & Sequence.

We're delighted to offer them to you to download and print at no cost. But it would be great if you could link to our page www.bookbotkids.com/free-books from your school's website so others can enjoy our free books.

We believe in creating an extensive library of decodable readers to inspire and bring confidence to children learning to read. You can find out about our mission at www.bookbotkids.com.
