

The Stars

Illustrated By Proiti Roy

Frog sits in his pond
looking at the stars.
He loves the view.

A whimsical illustration of a green frog with large white eyes sitting on a yellow rock. The frog is reaching its right arm high into the air, towards a large, glowing blue moon. The background is a deep blue night sky filled with yellow stars of various sizes. In the bottom left corner, there is a small pond with a pink flower and some green leaves. The overall style is soft and painterly.

He wants to touch
the stars, but they are too high up.

Frog went up a big hill. He still
could not touch
the stars.

He saw a tree. It
made him think.
Would that be high
enough?

Frog went up the tree. It took a long time. He is only small.

He put out his hand, but it was no use. They were still too
far.

Now frog was very high up. How was he going to get down?

He drew in a big breath.

It made him feel calm.

He looked down into
the pond where he lives.

Then he threw his arms
out and drove. He flew through the air.

The stars are in the pond! He is so close!

Splash!

He hits the water. Frog is in the stars!

He might not get to the stars in the sky...

but these stars will
do just fine.
